One condition there was of too potent determining importance—life-long ill health; and one circumstance of moment—a commercial failure, and consequent expatriation. Beyond this, little presents itself for record in the outward facts of this upright and beneficial career, bright with genius and coruscating with wit, dark with the lengthening and deepening shadow of death." - from the Biographical Introduction by William Michael Rossetti of The Poetical Works of Thomas Hood 10 files, 17:36 Read by Claudia Salto, Ernst Pattynama, Garth Burton, Jason Mills, Jannie Meisberger, Julia Niedermaier, John Sercel, Leonard Wilson, nbvoices and Patrick Wallace.
